PERSONAL SKILLS

I am a self-motivated, conscientious worker who values the quality of work. I am presentable and have excellent customer service skills. I have a keen sense of humor and this helps me relate to colleagues. I am a leader and my priority is to support my team to achieve our goals. I am an honest and trustworthy person who has experience of budget management and writing proposals to receive funding. I take my work very seriously, and work well under pressure and I always meet deadlines. I am very good at problem solving, as I am a very logical thinker as well as being creative and innovative. I am a good listener and a quick learner so I am sure that I could be an asset to your company.

I believe in being prepared, and make it a priority to be aware of legislation which affects my role. I have a sound understanding of educational environments and can use my experience, knowledge and training to quickly learn any additional skills or local protocols which may be required. I have an excellent attendance and punctuality record and work until the job is done.
